

citizenship. With diverse and intersecting categories of race, place, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, class, nationality, and ability, AES educates students in historical and social inquiry, textual analysis and interpretation, and critical theory and practice.

Completion Requirements

- 10 credits of Composition Coursework
 - B WRIT 133 OR B WRIT 134 OR ENGL 131 OR equivalent (5 credits)
 - B WRIT 135 OR ENGL 141 OR equivalent (5 credits)
- BISAES 305 Power, Dissent, and American Culture (5 credits)
- BIS 312 Approaches to Social Research - min. 2.00 grade OR BIS 340 Approaches to Cultural Research - min. 2.00 grade (5 credits)
- AES Courses (30 credits) to include a minimum of 5 credits from each of the following areas: Select from an approved list. Please check the major webpage for the approved list.
 - Historical and Social Inquiry
 - Textual Analysis and Interpretation
 - Critical Theory and Practice
- Additional IAS Coursework (20 credits): Select from any School of IAS prefix (BIS, BISSKL, BISCLA, BES, BISGWS, BISGST, BISIA, BISLEP, BISMCS, BISPSY, BISSTS, BISSTA)

Total = 70 credits

School of IAS Requirements & Policies

- Residency Requirement: 30 credits must be completed in residency at UW Bothell
- Cumulative GPA Requirement: Major GPA must be at a cumulative of 2.00 or higher
- Interdisciplinary Practices & Reflection (IPR): The IPR requirement can overlap with 70 credit major coursework or it can be completed through elective credits. Please see the IPR page for course options.
- Upper Division Credit Policy: Of the credits applying to the major requirements, a minimum of 35 credits must be completed at the Upper Division (300-400) level.

Back to Top