Bothell

General Catalog

The UW Bothell general catalog 2024-2025

The University of Washington Bothell offers many academic programs and certificates at the undergraduate, postbaccalaureate and graduate levels. The programs are designed to serve a diverse population of students who have just completed high school, who have completed some college study and are seeking to complete their baccalaureate degrees, initiate postbaccalaureate studies, or pursue courses for personal development.

In accordance with the traditions of the University of Washington, we are dedicated to providing responsive, accessible programs that proudly uphold traditional University of Washington standards of quality.
